of English in the UK

Welcome to

London Language Centre

Make the most of your time in London by taking an English course at the London Language Centre (LLC), part of the Institute of International Education in London (IIEL).

IIEL is an international educational institute based in London. In addition to conducting research into educational issues, IIEL offers Japanese teacher training courses, courses in Japanese as a foreign language and Japanese mother tongue courses for children. Our English courses have been accredited by the British Council in recognition of the quality of the teaching and support our students receive.

Whatever you study, IIEL students will be provided with educational guidance and pastoral care appropriate to their age, background and circumstances (including any additional support needs). This includes taking into account any special needs arising from religious observance.

Although we accept students from all backgrounds, we specialise in providing expert English language tuition that caters to the specific needs of Japanese students, many of whom are taking Japanese Teacher Training Courses at IIEL.

Details of LLC's key English courses can be found in this booklet.

IELTS

IELTS (International English Language Testing System) is a test recognized by universities and employers used as an indicator of your level of English. British, Australian, New Zealand and Canadian universities usually require a good IELTS score for entry onto undergraduate and postgraduate programmes.

About the course

The course will prepare you for the IELTS exam and university life. It will enable you to develop the language and skills tested in IELTS and familiarise you with the test itself. Our teachers will help you diagnose the areas of English you need to work on most and focus on these in class.

IELTS covers four skills;

- SPEAKING Discussion skills, increasing fluency and lexical knowledge.
- LISTENING Listening for gist, listening for detail, note-taking
- READING Practising skimming and scanning, identifying opinions, developing vocabulary deduction skills
- WRITING Essay-writing skills, using graphs and diagrams to support ideas, expanding your range of vocabulary

Cambridge Exams

Cambridge Exams are useful for your personal, academic and professional development. We provide thorough preparation for two internationally recognised English language qualifications: the Cambridge English: First (FCE) and Cambridge English: Advanced (CAE).

About the course

The course focuses on developing the language skills necessary to pass a Cambridge exam. We also aim to improve your overall language ability and practical communicative competence. Teachers consider their students' needs carefully and offer plenty of opportunities for practising the language.

Levels

FCE (upper-intermediate level) is widely recognised in commerce and industry, and by educational institutions in Britain and overseas as proof of language ability at an upper-intermediate level.

CAE (advanced level) is recognised by the majority of British universities as fulfilling English Language entrance requirements.
