

Talk about Japanese Culture

Presentation about Japanese culture and society in English showcasing Japanese teaching Diploma students

IIEL invite you to join us for daytime sessions on presenting Japanese culture and society in English. These sessions are aimed at everyone who would like to familiarise themselves with aspects of real Japan.

VENUE: Institute of International Education in London (IIEL)

Greenwich Campus Charlton House
Charlton House, Charlton Road,
Charlton, London SE7 8RE UK

Tuesday 26th August, 12.45 to 16.15

6 presentations

- ① Japanese Trains – Why are they so punctual?
- ② Food for Japanese New Year – a world in a bento box
- ③ Amazing Japanese Tatoos
- ④ Western Sweets with a Japanese Flavour
- ⑤ Japanese Convenience Store: Can't live without them?
- ⑥ Secret Tokyo – what you won't find in a guidebook

These sessions are free of charge, but we ask you to contact IIEL to book your place in advance.

Tel 020 8331 3100 E-mail enquiries@iiel.org.uk
<http://www.iiel.org.uk/english>

